

absence accessible accidentally acclaim aggravate alleged auxiliary basically because beginning	broccoli collectible commitment connoisseur conscientious consciousness corroborate diarrhoea disappearance drunkenness	embarrass entrepreneur existence fascinate fictitious forfeit fulfilment guarantee hindrance idiosyncrasy	immediately independent indispensable inevitable intelligence mediocre mischievous necessary obsolescent omelette
pastime perseverance presumptuous pseudonym recommend remembrance restaurant rhythmical roommate sacrilegious	shining skiing soliloquy stubbornness subtlety success suddenness surreptitious temperamental tendency	tomorrow transferred truly twelfth tyranny unnecessary until usage vacuum commandos	onomatopoeia Buddhist geisha aesthetic February Presbyterian pyrotechnic Teutonic Wednesday aardvark

Spelling & Vocabulary EXPECTATIONS:

1. Each week you have a spelling test – learn your words. If you get TWO or more wrong you re-sit the test at the NEXT BREAK (interval, lunch OR after school).
2. In your books, under the appropriate headings you will:
 - a. Write out a DICTIONARY DEFINITION to FIVE words.
 - b. Write the OTHER FIVE words each within a FULL SENTENCE.

You will hand your book into your teacher at the end of your spelling lesson. This is a HOMEWORK task and will not be done in class.

3. If you are not sitting your spelling test you are engaged in QUIET READING.
4. If you gain 100% for THREE weeks consecutively you will be promoted to a new group.