

LESSON THREE

STARTER – mixed up Prologues activity (no books on desks)

(Pre-Organise a copy of the prologue to be cut up into 2-3 line segments and put into an envelope. Ask students to arrange the prologue onto their desks into the correct order)

THE OPENING FIGHT SCENE

OFFENSIVE GESTURES:

- What are some? (without being too offensive please...)

During the time of Romeo & Juliet, biting your thumb at another person was considered the equivalent of

Read OPENING scene of play together (making sure that class is aware of who is on who's side...)

NOW !!– Groups of SIX

Practice parts together (use discretion as to how much time you allot for practice)

PERFORM!!!

Set some ground rules for practicing & performing, e.g.:

- No hassling group members, respect everyone in your group.
- Participate & enjoy.
- Stay on-task please.