

AUDIENCE FEELS	Reputation	Good Name	Selfish	Shame
AUDIENCE FEELS	Pity	Fear	Frustration	Desperation
AUDIENCE FEELS	Disbelief	Fury	Sympathy	Suspense
AUDIENCE FEELS	Blind	Anger	Liar!	Idiots!

DO THIS!!

- Cut out the points above and below
- Arrange them onto the Courtroom Scene Chart in terms of rising and falling action.
- Stick the points on.
- Be ready to explain yourselves to your class!

Mary Warren accuses the girls of lying about witches...	Mary is asked to faint in front of the court...	Abigail is accused by Proctor of lying...
Proctor admits to adultery in order to ruin Abigail's reputation...	Elizabeth Proctor lies about her husband's adultery (lechery), but in doing so ruins him...	Abigail and the girls pretend to see Mary Warren's spirit in the courthouse...
Mary Warren fears she will be hanged as a witch and so accuses John Proctor of being one!		