

LESSON NINE

WHAT DO WE KNOW?

- Romeo is banished, sent to a place called Mantua, not allowed to return to Verona where his beloved wife is.
- In an effort to cheer his daughter up (her cousin Tybalt has just died, remember), Capulet decides that the eligible young bachelor (what does this phrase mean?) Paris should marry the young Juliet.

What's the problem here? (feedback onto board)

What are some possible solutions? (feedback onto board)

Read the Friar's solution together and complete accompanying questions...