

Item	Checked	Comments	Notes
All incandescent lights replaced with compact fluorescent lights			CFLs are much more efficient lights turned off when people are not in room All appliances have energy ratings Refrigerator door's gasket gives proper seal
Refrigerator coils are cleaned at least once a year			Coils are located either behind or under the refrigerator
Refrigerator temperature is 3-5 °C			Check using thermometer, you need to leave inside for 24 hours
Freezer temperature is -15 °C			If separate freezer, than it should be at -18 °C
Appliances with standby are unplugged when not in use			Standby appliances use a significant amount of energy Washer, dishwasher, and dryer are only ran when fully loaded
No leaking faucets
Air conditioning

set at 25 °C or higher

Air conditioner filters are regularly cleaned

Windows and doors shut when air conditioning is on

Air ducts are not blocked and are properly sealed

Computer in powered down
when not in use

TV's, DVD's,
printers,
speakers, etc. are turned off when
not in use

Trees and shrubs are planted to provide shade for the house

The monitor uses
the most amount of energy