

1 constitution generosity economic endeavour cylinder abbreviate picturesque molecular amateur unique	2 mischievous approximate descendant epidemic communicate scheme substitute acknowledge gigantic contagious	3 legislature rehearsal prosperous tragedy sanctuary necessary customary aerial category definite	4 benevolent politician vocalize threaten priority intercept alternate ceramic essential sustain
5 poisonous ingredient frequency desolate apology deceitful concept durable partial declaration	6 auxiliary deprivation equation hideous nausea reservoir studious reputable antidote chronic	7 benediction credential altercation grotesque poignant authentic convenience sabotage camouflage tedious	8 expedient hallucination flexibility mesmerise stringent lustrous feasibility mediator tutorial perjury

Spelling & Vocabulary EXPECTATIONS:

1. Each week you have a spelling test – learn your words. If you get TWO or more wrong you re-sit the test at the NEXT BREAK (interval, lunch OR after school).
2. In your books, under the appropriate headings you will:
  - a. Write out a DICTIONARY DEFINITION to FIVE words.
  - b. Write the OTHER FIVE words each within a FULL SENTENCE.

You will hand your book into your teacher at the end of your spelling lesson. This is a HOMEWORK task and will not be done in class.

3. If you are not sitting your spelling test you are engaged in QUIET READING.
4. If you gain 100% for THREE weeks consecutively you will be promoted to a new group.