

catching up

▪ on your blog, you should have:

- 5 photographed objects, upload to your blog
- scanned an image, and upload to your blog
- a blog post that describes your 5 chosen web feeds
- a post, or posts on copyright case studies, 1, 2, and 3
- have uploaded an image from the internet to your blog, that is legal for you to use, and that you have attributed accordingly
- added a Creative Commons Licence to your blog
- a post(s) on what is Free Software and a description of 5 free software programmes
- found a video about free software, and uploaded it to your blog with a description
- a post discussing possible ways to complete your 'online presence' with a conclusion (i.e. your choice of software etc.)
- 2 x posts about your chosen electronic artists
- created a short 'movie' and uploaded it to your blog

- created your online presence, and linked to it, from your blog
