

Romeo and Juliet - What day did it happen?

Put the story into the right order and work out the right day of the week for each series of events.
Juliet refuses to marry Paris.	Juliet's funeral - she is laid in the family vault.	A melancholy Romeo walks under a grove of sycamore trees in the early morning mist.	Romeo fights with Tybalt and kills him.	Romeo and Juliet meet and swear their love for each other.
Mercutio and Tybalt fight and Mercutio dies.	The Friar gives Juliet a sleeping potion and explains how she can escape marrying Paris.	The Friar sends a message to Romeo - telling him of his plan to save Juliet from marriage to Paris.	Romeo and Juliet spend the night together - before Romeo must leave her for exile in Mantua.	Romeo finds Juliet in the tomb - and drinks the poison he has brought with him.
The Nurse discovers Juliet's "dead" body.	The Montagues and the Capulets fight in the city.	Later that evening Juliet takes the sleeping potion.	The Nurse meets Romeo - and is able to tell Juliet when she should meet him to get married.	Capulet holds a masked ball. Romeo sees Juliet for the first time.
Romeo and Juliet are married by the Friar.	Prince Escalus banishes Romeo.	Capulet agrees that Paris will marry Juliet in three days time.	Juliet awakes in the tomb - finds Romeo dead and stabs herself with his dagger.	Romeo tells the Friar that he has fallen in love with Juliet.